Date: Nov 27, 2026 7:00PM PST

Pre-Game

Firebirds are coming off the longest road trip of the year where they went 4-1-0-0. They have moved up to 2nd in the Pacific. Their team +/- has turned positive. Players are coming back from the Kraken, but J.R. Avon and Oscar Fisker Mølgaard are still out with injuries. After a slow start to the season, Jagger Firkus and Logan Morrison lead the team in scoring. Now, the Firebirds start the longest home stand of the season by welcoming the Condors.

The Condors are dead last in the Pacific; 9 points out of a playoff spot. The team has a combined +/- of -84, which is amazing since the Oilers are tops in the NHL Pacific. The usual suspects lead the team in scoring: Viljami Marjala, Quinn Hutson, veteran Seth Griffith. There is 4 and half months are left in the season so anything can happen.

Head-to-Head:

The first game took place in Bakersfield last Sunday. The Firebirds won 4 -1, and they never trailed in the game. Kokko stopped 31 of 32 shots. Tonight, Victor Ostman is in net for the Firebirds. Matt Tomkins goes for the Condors who is seeking redemption from last Sunday. Historically the teams have played fairly even. Even though the Condors are dead last in the Pacific, the Firebirds need to be careful not to fall into a trap game.

1st Period

A trap game is looking likely after the first period. The Condors came out flying, but the Firebirds got the first tally. Lleyton Roed intercepted a clearing shot and fired the puck on net that Matt Tomkins couldn't handle. Less than a minute later the Condors tied the game. On a bad turn over, Isaac Howard sniped one over Ostman. The Condor tilted the ice in their favor. The Firebirds got the lead back after Tomkins miss-handled the puck off the boards. Jagger Firkus hustle to put the loose puck in the empty goal. Two minutes later, a bad turnover in the O-zone, gave the Condors a 2 on 1 break. Josh Davies had an option to pass, but snipped the puck over Ostman's should to tie the game. In the end the Condors had 20 shots on goal to the Firebirds 7.

2nd Period

No scoring in the period. The Firebirds settled down a bit, and tilted the ice in their favor. They still gave up more shots on goal, but they had the better scoring chances.

3rd Period

No scoring in the period. Even though they had 2 penalties in the period, the Firebirds finally tilted the ice in their direction. 10 shots on goal create chances, but nothing was getting past Tomkins

Overtime

Firebirds won the puck to start the OT. Produced a shot and kept good control throughout the OT. Condors did get the puck, and they worked to tire out the Firebirds by rotating fresh players and keeping the Firebirds trapped in their D-zone. The idea was interesting, but produced no shots. Lleyton Roed did the wise things and waited for a change. The Firebirds went to work and developed a couple of 2 on 1s. The last was Ryden Evers and Eduard Šalé. Gustav Olofsson took the puck away from a Condor and passed to Evers. He moved in on goal. Šalé stayed on the ice a little long as he was too far from the bench to change, and decided to follow Evers to the net. A short little pass and Šalé didn't miss the back of the net.

Post-Game

The Firebirds started sloppy and the Condors took advantage. The Condors had an opportunity to come away with a regulation win, but the Firebirds turned the tide to get the 2 points. The Condors extend the winless streak to 0-3-1-1. Firebirds have now won 4 in a row and leap frog over the Silver Knights into 2nd place. The Silver Knights played tonight and won in a shootout. The Silver Knights will play the Firebirds tomorrow night. The Condors fly home to play the Canucks tomorrow night.

	1st	2nd	3rd	OT	Total
